

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFATORY NOTICE.

THE Law of Precedence, when strictly adhered to, regulates to general satisfaction everyone's proper position in Society. "Stand upon the order of your going" is so punctiliously enforced, that it is very desirable that the relative rank of all titled persons should be readily ascertained. The Scale of Social Precedence to be found at page 10 indicates at a glance the position of the various grades, but individual precedence is far more difficult to be determined. The plan adopted in the following lists of prefixing numbers, is a simple and sure guide in the matter. For instance, if the relative precedence of Sir Duncan Cameron, G.C.B., and of Sir Nevile Chamberlain, also G.C.B., has to be ascertained, it will only be necessary to refer to those names in the alphabetical list at page 63. The prefix number attached to Sir Duncan Cameron is 13, to Sir Nevile Chamberlain, 16; consequently, the lower number showing the higher precedence, Sir Duncan Cameron has the higher rank.

To enable a reader to become acquainted with the principles of precedence he should carefully study the "General Remarks" introducing the lists, and consult likewise the subsequent "Regulations of Precedence among Diplomatic Agents, Consuls, and Naval and Military Officers," and also the precedence in the Colonies, the Dominion of Canada, and the Indian Empire at pages 80-84.

The whole of the following Lists will form part of the next edition of BURKE'S PEERAGE AND BARONETAGE, it being the Author's anxious endeavour to render that work as comprehensive and as perfect as possible.

RULES OF PRECEDENCE.

GENERAL REMARKS.

IN the thirty-first year of King HENRY VIII., Parliament, by statutory enactment, took cognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," which, although it concerned directly only the Great Officers of State, and referred but incidentally to the places of the Nobility, has since been considered the chief authority for the marshalling of dignities. This Act was originated by the desire of the King, and it is declared, as a preliminary, that although it appertained altogether to the Royal Prerogative to give such honour, reputation, and placing to his Councillors and others his subjects as should be seeming to the King's most excellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and contented for an order to be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the placing of the Great Officers and Lords. In addition to this Act of Parliament, the Scale of Precedence is sustained by royal ordinances and ancient usage. The least interference, unless made by Royal or Parliamentary authority, would be destructive of the right of some one entitled to rank on the scale.

The Law of Precedence, though thus confirmed temp. HENRY VIII., dates from a far more distant era than the Act "For placing the Lords." Regulations concerning it were officially issued at various periods long antecedent. The first, in point of date, was "The Order of all Estates of Nobles and Gentry of England," framed in 1339, and the last officially issued before the Statute of HENRY VIII., the series ordinum of the reign of HENRY VII., which Coke considers of the highest authority. The Statute of HENRY VIII. was in the nature of a declaratory Act, confirming the ancient and pre-existing Law of Precedence, and, in confirmation of this, it is a matter of historical fact that the advice of Garter King of Arms was taken before the bill was brought in.

The next important decrees of Precedence were those of King JAMES I., dated 1612 and 1616. A dispute had arisen between Barons' and Viscounts' younger sons, and the then newly created order of Baronets, as to which should take the higher place, and it was finally determined by the King himself in favour of the Peers' sons.

A leading principle of the Law of Precedence is that precedence emanates from father or husband, and cannot be derived from a female, unless in the case of a Peeress in her own right. The daughter and sole heiress of the first Duke of the Kingdom (unless a Peeress in her own right), would confer no higher precedence on her son, than if she were the daughter of a simple citizen.

It is very difficult to determine when precedence, in the descendants of Dukes, Princes of the Blood Royal, ends. Miles, in his Catalogue of Honour of the time of JAMES I., a work of deep research, compiled from the MSS. of his uncle, the learned Robert Glover, Somerset Herald, at a period when the subject of precedence was much canvassed and considered, asserts that "Dukes descended of the Royal Blood," take place above Dukes not descended of the Royal Blood. How far Glover was borne out in this statement I have not been able to discover, but I must confess my own opinion is very much in accordance with his. At the Court of France, under the old régime, the Royal Family and its descendants were always first.

The question of the precedence of the Great Officers of State of Ireland and Scotland with reference to similar officers in England, is not provided for by the Acts of Union, and has never yet been definitely settled, unless, indeed, the placing of the Lord Chancellor of Ireland next to the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, at the Coronation of King WILLIAM IV., be deemed a royal settlement of the point. Selden is of opinion that "The lists that show practice and custom in matters of precedence, are seen in the published assemblies of the States and other solemnities of Coronations, funerals, and the like."

RULES OF PRECEDENCE.

I.—MEN OF OFFICIAL RANK, who have higher personal precedence, are placed according to that higher personal precedence.

II.—IT IS MEN'S RANK that confers precedence and regulates State Ceremonials. At the Queen's Courts, where husbands and wives pass Her Majesty together, the precedence of the husbands is that which is regarded.

III.—THE WIVES AND CHILDREN OF GREAT OFFICERS OF STATE and of all of those who derive their places on the scale from official rank, have no consequent precedence, nor have the wives and children of Archbishops and Bishops.

IV.—A LADY, having precedence by birth (for instance, the daughter of a Peer, Baronet, or Knight), retains her innate rank and precedence although married to a Commoner, but if she be married to a Peer, her precedence is that of her husband.

V.—WIDOWS OF PEERS, BARONETS, AND KNIGHTS, on marrying Commoners, continue by the etiquette of society, though not by law, to retain their titles and precedence. At a Coronation or other state ceremonial, widows of Peers who have married Commoners are not summoned to attend; this rule was followed at the funeral of the Duke of Wellington. In society it is different, and the widows of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, married to untitled Commoners, generally adhere to the titles acquired by their first marriages, although the practice is not derived from right. Widows of "Honourables" who subsequently marry Commoners (not sons of Peers), are not allowed, even by the courtesy of society, to retain the prefix of "Honourable" after such subsequent marriages.

VI.—A PEERESS IN HER OWN RIGHT does not lose her rank and precedence by marriage or widowhood; if she be married to a Peer of higher degree than her own, she has her husband's precedence.

VII.—DAUGHTERS OF PEERS, BARONETS, AND KNIGHTS, and other persons of dignity, rank next immediately after the wives of their eldest brothers.

VIII.—DOWAGER PEERESSES, AND BARONETS' WIDOWS take precedence of the wives of the existing Peers and Baronets of the same creations, from their being senior in the dignity, from their husbands having been nearer the succession; for instance, the Dowager Duchess of Beaufort has precedence of the wife of the present Duke of Beaufort; and on the same principle of being nearer the succession, the son of an existing Peer has precedence above the son of a previous holder of the same title.

IX.—PEERS AND PEERESSES take rank among themselves, thus—I., of England; II., of Scotland; III., of Great Britain; IV., of Ireland; and V. of the United Kingdom and of Ireland, created since the Union, according to the dates of the respective patents.

X.—MAIDS OF HONOR to Her Majesty the Queen take rank after Barons' daughters.

XI.—THE BARONETS OF ENGLAND, THE BARONETS OF IRELAND, THE BARONETS OF SCOTLAND, THE BARONETS OF GREAT BRITAIN, AND THE BARONETS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM, take rank among themselves according to the dates of their respective patents. The Act of Union of Great Britain and Ireland, which fixes the precedence of the different orders of the Peerage, enacts no other precedence, nor does it interfere with or disturb in the slightest degree any other forms of precedence that might then have been in force. It is silent as to the English, Irish, or Scotch Baronets, and consequently whatever precedence their original patents conferred, is not affected by that enactment. For instance, Sir Charles Coote inherits a Baronetcy of Ireland, conferred in 1620, and, has, by right, the precedence of that date. There is no law or statute to deprive him of it, or to make him give place, for instance, to Sir Henry James Hawley, whose grandfather, Henry Hawley, was created a Baronet of Great Britain in 1795. Some argue that as the Act of Union fixed the precedence of the Peers of the Three Kingdoms, the precedence of the Baronets may be assumed by analogy; but surely no lawyer or herald would admit the power of "analogy" to destroy a right derived by Patent from the Crown.

XII.—PRIVY-COUNCILLORS of Great Britain and Privy-Councillors of Ireland, take rank, inter se, according to the dates of their being sworn in.

XIII.—AMBASSADORS yield precedence only to members of the Royal Family of the Court to which they are accredited, and to the sons and brothers of Crowned Heads. Foreign Ministers and Envoys have no real claim to precedence. The question was raised and settled at the Congress of Vienna, in 1815, but of late years place has been allowed them in this country, after Dukes and before Marquesses.

XIV.—ESQUIRES—Armiger, or Esquire, is not, like those names given in the Statute 1 EDWARD VI., c. 7, s. 3, a name of dignity, but is (as is also, according to Sir Edward Cooke, Gentleman or Yeoman) a name of worship, and cannot be attached to any of the dignities mentioned in the Statute of EDWARD VI. The different classes to whom the title of Esquire belongs are:—

1. The sons of all the peers and lords of parliament during the lives of their fathers; the younger sons of peers after the death of their fathers; the eldest sons of the younger sons of peers and their eldest sons in perpetual succession.
2. Noblemen of other nations.
3. The eldest (and we think, if any, all the) sons of baronets, and the eldest sons of knights.
4. Esquires created expressly with a collar of SS., and spurs of silver—now obsolete.
5. Persons to whom the Queen gives arms by her own letters patent, with the title of Esquire.
6. Esquires of the Bath, and the eldest sons of those Esquires, pursuant to the statutes of the Order.
7. Barristers-at-law, by their office or profession.
8. Justices of the peace, and mayors, while in the commission, or in office.
9. Persons chosen Esquires to the body of the Prince—now obsolete.
10. Persons attending on the Sovereign's coronation in some notable employment, or persons employed in any superior office of trust (where they have discretionary power, and are not, such as clerks, merely ministerial) under the Crown, or serving in some place of better note in the Queen's household.
11. Persons who are styled Esquires by the Queen in their patents, commissions, or appointments, such as sheriffs of counties, or captains in the army and navy.
12. Attorneys in colonies, where the departments of counsel and attorney are united.

XV.—H.M. LIEUTENANT OF A COUNTY.—HIGH SHERIFF OF A COUNTY. Neither H.M. Lieutenant of a County nor the Sheriff is assigned any place on the scale of general precedence, and neither has consequently any social rank from the office he holds. A particular place on the Scale is an honour derived from the Crown or Parliament, or confirmed by authorised usage, and can no more be interfered with than the right to the dignity of the Peerage which a royal patent has conferred. A person not a Peer might as well be placed on the roll of the Peerage as a person not recognized by the authorized scale on the roll of precedence. By the etiquette, however, of Society, H.M. Lieutenant or the Sheriff of a county is generally, in his own county, given the first place. Between the two the higher position appertains, in my opinion, to H.M. Lieutenant of a county.

SCALE OF GENERAL OR SOCIAL PRECEDENCE.

THE precedence indicated in the following Scale is that which is known as general or social precedence, and is admitted on all occasions and in all society. The Clergy, the Bar, the Military, and other classes have amongst themselves a certain relative rank; but such relative rank is peculiar to each of these classes, and gives them no position on the general or social scale. That scale comprises those only who enjoy dignities, or (in case of men) official appointments coming within some one of the authorities here cited of statute, patent, or usage.

The marks, or absence of marks, show the authorities.

RELATIVE PRECEDENCE OF PEERS.

To ascertain the Relative Precedence of Peers among themselves, it will be only necessary to have regard to the number prefixed to each title, the lower number indicating the higher precedence. For instance, the Duke of Norfolk, numbered 1, takes precedence of the Duke of Beaufort, numbered 5, and Baron Rodney, numbered 388, of Baron Strathnairn numbered 532.

(The Titles are alphabetically arranged.)

PRECEDENCE OF SPIRITUAL LORDS.

Archbishops.

ARCHBISHOPS take precedence of all Dukes next to those of the Blood Royal. The Archbishop of Canterbury ranks as first lord, and the Archbishop of York as third, coming immediately after the Lord Chancellor.

Bishops.

By an act of parliament passed in the thirty-first year of HENRY VIII., it was settled that Bishops take precedence of all Barons, and immediately after Viscounts; the Bishops of London, Durham, and Winchester, preceding their Right Reverend brethren, who take rank among themselves according to seniority of consecration.

PRECEDENCE OF PRIVY COUNCILLORS.

Privy Councillors not being Peers or holding certain offices, are placed immediately after Knights of the Garter. In the Privy Council, all persons who have higher rank than that of Privy Councillor take precedence according to such higher rank. All who have no such higher rank take precedence according to the date of their being sworn into the Privy Council.

PRECEDENCE OF JUDGES, &c.

Special precedence is assigned to the Lord Chief Justice of England and the Master of the Rolls by virtue of their offices. The precedence of the other Judges (who take rank among themselves according to seniority of appointment) is as follows:—

Lords Justices of Appeal.

Vice-Chancellors.

Judges of the High Court of Justice.

Judge of the Court of Probate. In Court, as Judge Ordinary of the Divorce Court, this Judge ranks next after the Master of the Rolls.

Serjeants-at-Law, Masters in Chancery, and Masters in Lunacy follow the Knights Bachelors, and precede the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood.

THE KNIGHTS IN ORDER OF PRECEDENCE.

Lists of the Knights of the Orders of the Garter, the Thistle, and St. Patrick are, with a view to completeness, included in the following Tables, although the Knights of those Orders who are at the present time all Peers take precedence, of course, according to their Peerage rank (see pp. 12-14). Whenever a Knight of the Garter is not a Peer, he is ranked immediately after the eldest son of a Baron.

In the first List will be found not only a description of the several classes, badges, and insignia, but also the Official Lists of the Officers and Knights. This List is given at pp. 24-45.

The second List places all Knights in their Order of Precedence, prefixing to each, who has no higher rank, his individual number.

The third List, arranged in alphabetical order, serves as an index to the two former Lists, showing at a glance by the prefix number, the relative precedence inter se of the Knights and Companions.

THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.

Instituted by King Edward III. about August, 1348.

(K.G.)

HABIT AND INSIGNIA.

THE GARTER of dark-blue velvet, edged with gold, bearing the motto in golden letters, with buckle and pendant of gold richly chased. The garter is worn on the left leg below the knee.

THE HOOD of crimson velvet.

THE SURCOAT likewise of crimson velvet, lined with white taffeta.

THE HAT of black velvet, lined with white taffeta; a plume of white ostrich feathers, in the centre of which a tuft of black heron's feathers, all fastened to the hat by a band of diamonds.

THE COLLAR, gold, consisting of twenty-six pieces, each in form of a garter, enamelled, azure, and appended thereto,

THE GEORGE, or figure of St. George on horseback, encountering the dragon. The George is worn to the collar; and the lesser George, pendant to a broad dark-blue ribbon over the left shoulder.

THE STAR of eight points, silver, upon the centre of which the Cross of St. George, gules, encircled with the garter.

By a statute passed on the 28th June, 1831, the Order is to consist of the Sovereign and twenty-five

ORDER OF THE GARTER.

25

Knights-Companions, together with such lineal descendants of King GEORGE the First as may be elected, always excepting the Prince of Wales, who is a constituent part of the original institution. Special statutes have since, at different times, been promulgated for the admission of Sovereigns and Extra Knights, the latter of whom have, however, always become part of the twenty-five Companions on the occurrence of vacancies.

RIBBON OF THE ORDER—Sky-blue.

THE MOST HONOURABLE ORDER OF THE BATH.

Instituted in 1399. Revived in 1725. Enlarged in 1815 and 1847.

On the 2nd of Jan. 1815, it was declared that, "for the purpose of commemorating the auspicious termination of the long and arduous contest in which this empire has been engaged," the order should be composed of three classes, and on the 14th April, 1847, it was further extended by the addition of civil knights commanders and companions, on which occasion new Statutes were promulgated for the government of the Order, and the number of members declared as follows, viz.,

1st Class—to consist of knights grand cross; number not to exceed, for the military service, fifty, exclusive of the Sovereign and princes of the blood royal, and such distinguished foreigners as may be nominated honorary knights grand cross; and twenty-five for the civil service.

2nd Class—Knights commanders, numbers not to exceed for the military service, one hundred and twenty-three, and for the civil service eighty, exclusive of foreign officers, who may be admitted as honorary knights commanders. In the event of actions of signal distinction, or of future wars, the numbers may be increased of this as well as of the third class. The members of the second class are entitled to the distinctive appellation of knighthood, after having been invested with the Insignia; to take precedence of Knights Bachelors; to wear the badge, &c., pendant by a red ribbon round the neck, the star embroidered on the left side.

3rd Class—Companions of the Order, to consist, for military service, of six hundred and ninety and for the civil service of two hundred and fifty; they are to take precedence of esquires, but are not entitled to the appellation, style, &c., of knights bachelors. To wear the badge assigned to the third class, pendent by a narrow red ribbon from the left breast. No officer can be nominated to the military division of the third class of the Order, unless his services have been marked by special mention of his name as having distinguished himself in action against the enemy. This class has never been conferred upon any officer below the rank of major in the army and commander in the navy.

THE BADGE for the MILITARY CLASSES of the Order is a gold Maltese cross, of eight points, enamelled, argent; in the four angles, a lion passant-guardant, or; in the centre, the rose, thistle, and shamrock, issuant from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, or, within a circle, gules; thereon the motto of the Order, surrounded by two branches of laurel, proper, issuing from an escrol, azure, inscribed ICH DIEN (I serve), in letters of gold. It is worn by the grand crosses pendent from a red ribbon across the right shoulder, by the knights commanders from the neck, and by the companions from the button-hole.

THE COLLAR is of gold (weight, thirty ounces Troy weight), and is composed of nine imperial crowns, and eight roses, thistle, and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre, enamelled in their proper colours, tied or linked together with seventeen gold knots, enamelled white, having the badge of the Order pendent therefrom.

THE STAR OF THE MILITARY GRAND CROSSES is formed of rays or flames of silver, thereon a gold Maltese cross, and in the centre, within the motto, branches of laurel, issuant as in the badge.

THE CIVIL KNIGHTS GRAND CROSSES retain the old badge and star of the Order. The Star is of silver, formed with eight points or rays, charged with three imperial crowns, proper, upon a glory of silver rays, surrounded with a red circle, upon which is the motto of the Order. Their badge is of gold, composed of a rose, thistle, and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, encircled by the motto. The civil knights commanders wear the same badge, of a smaller size, round the neck by a red ribbon, and the civil companions the same, but of a still smaller size, from the button-hole, pendent from a red ribbon.

THE STAR OF THE KNIGHTS COMMANDERS is in the form of a cross-patée of silver, having the same centre as the grand crosses, but without a gold Maltese cross thereon. The star of the civil knights commanders is of the same form and size, only omitting the laurel wreath round the circle containing the motto and the escrol with the words, "Ich dien" underneath.

OFFICERS OF THE ORDER.

Dean of the Order—Dean of Westminster.

Bath King of Arms—Admiral the Hon. George Grey.

Registrar and Secretary—Sir Albert W. Woods, Garter King of Arms, Herald's College.

Gentleman Usher of the Scarlet Rod—G. C. Barrington, Esq.

THE MOST EXALTED ORDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA.

Instituted by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, February 23rd, 1861, and enlarged, March 28th, 1866 and 1876.

The Order consists of the Sovereign, a Grand Master, and 205 Ordinary Companions or Members, together with such Extra and Honorary Members as Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, shall from time to time appoint. The 205 Ordinary Members are divided into three Classes:—the first Class are styled Knights Grand Commanders, and to consist of thirty Members; the second Class to consist of seventy-two Members, to be styled Knights Commanders; the third Class to consist of one hundred and forty-four Members, to be styled Companions. Her Majesty's Viceroy and Governor-General of India for the time being is Grand Master.

THE statutes enable the Sovereign to confer the dignity of Knight Grand Commander of the Order upon Princes and Chiefs of India as shall have entitled themselves to her Majesty's favour, and upon such of her Majesty's British subjects as have, by important and loyal services rendered by them to the Indian Empire, merited the Royal favour; and the second and third Classes upon persons who, by their conduct or services in the Indian Empire, have merited the Royal favour.

THE STAR.—Rays of gold issuing from a centre, having thereon a star in diamonds, resting upon a light blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order, viz.:—"HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE," also in diamonds.

THE COLLAR.—Composed of the lotus of India, of palm branches, tied together, in saltier, and of the united Red and White Rose. In the centre is an imperial crown; all richly enamelled on gold, in their proper colours.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a riband of the same colours and pattern as that of the First Class, but two inches in width, hanging therefrom the Badge of a smaller size than that appointed for the Knights Grand Commanders except the star, which surmounts it, is of silver; on their left breast a star composed of rays of silver issuing from a gold centre, having thereon a silver star resting upon a blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order.

The Companions wear from the left breast a Badge of the same form as appointed for the Knights Commanders, but of a smaller size pendent to the like riband of the breadth of one inch and a half.

THE BADGE.—An onyx cameo of Her Majesty's effigy, set in a perforated and ornamented oval, containing the motto of the Order, "HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE," surmounted by a star all in diamonds. The Ribbon of the Order is sky-blue, having a narrow white stripe towards either edge, and is worn from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE MANTLE.—Light blue satin, lined with white, and fastened with a cordon of white silk, with blue and silver tassels, on the left side a representation of the star of the Order.

OFFICERS OF THE ORDER.

Secretary—Sir Alfred Comyns Lyall, K.C.B.

Registrar—Sir Albert W. Woods, Garter King of Arms.

THE MOST DISTINGUISHED ORDER OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

Instituted 27th April, 1818, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and enlarged and extended 4th Dec. 1868, and 30th May, 1877, for the natural born subjects of the Crown of the United Kingdom as may have held or shall hold high and confidential offices within Her Majesty's colonial possessions, and in reward for services to the Crown in relation to the foreign affairs of the Empire. &c.

The Order is to consist of not more than fifty Knights Grand Cross, exclusive of Extra and Honorary Members, one hundred and fifty Knights Commanders, and two hundred and sixty Companions.

THE members of the Order enjoy rank and precedence immediately after the corresponding classes of the Order of the Star of India; that is to say, the Knights Grand Cross after Knights Grand Commanders of the Star of India; the Knights Commanders after the Knights Commanders of the Star of India; and the Companions after the Companions of the Star of India. The Grand Master is the First and Principal Knight Grand Cross. The Knights Grand Cross are entitled to bear supporters and to encircle their arms with the collar, ribbon, and motto of the Order. The Knights Commanders also encircle their arms with the ribbon and motto; and the Companions suspend the badge of the Order to their arms.

HABIT AND INSIGNIA.

THE STAR of a Knight Grand Cross is composed of seven rays of silver, having a small ray of gold between each of them, and over all the cross of St. George, gules. In the centre is a representation of the Archangel St. Michael encountering Satan, within a blue circle, inscribed with the motto, AUSPICIUM MELIORIS ÆVI.

THE COLLAR is formed alternately of lions of England, of Maltese crosses, and of the ciphers S M and S G, having in the centre the imperial crown, over two winged lions, passant-guardant, each holding a book, and seven arrows. At the opposite end of the collar are two similar lions. The whole is of gold except the crosses, which are of white enamel, and it is linked together by small gold chains.

THE BADGE is a gold cross of fourteen points of white enamel, edged with gold, having in the centre, on one side, the Archangel St. Michael, encountering Satan, and on the other, St. George on horseback, encountering a dragon, within a blue circle, on which the motto of the Order is inscribed. The Cross is surmounted by the imperial crown, and is worn by the Knights Grand Cross to the Collar, or to a wide Saxon-blue ribbon, with a scarlet stripe from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE MANTLE is of Saxon-blue satin, lined with scarlet silk, tied with cordons of blue and scarlet silk and gold, and has on the left side the star of a Knight Grand Cross.

THE CHAPEAU is of blue satin, lined with scarlet, and surmounted with white and black ostrich feathers.

THE KNIGHTS COMMANDERS wear the badge suspended to a narrower ribbon from the neck, and have on their left side a star composed of four rays, with a small cross of eight points in saltier, of silver, surmounted by the cross of St. George, gules, and having the same centre as the Star of the Grand Crosses.

ORDER OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

THE COMPANIONS wear the small cross of the Order from a still narrower ribbon at the button-hole of their coats.

THE ORDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE.

Instituted by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Empress of India, 1 January, 1878.

THIS Order was instituted to reward services rendered to Her Majesty and Her Indian Empire and to commemorate the Proclamation of Her Style and Title of Empress of India, and is to consist of the Sovereign, Grand Master, and Companions.

The Viceroy and Governor-General of India for the time being to be Grand Master of the Order.

The Companions are to consist of such persons who by their services, official or other, to the Empire of India, have merited the Royal Favour, and upon such distinguished Representatives of Eastern Potentates as the Sovereign may think fit.

The Councillors of Her Majesty for the Indian Empire are to be ex-officio and for life Companions of the Order.

The Companions of the Order to have place and precedency next to and immediately after the Companions of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, and to rank among themselves according to the date of their respective nominations.

The Badge consists of a Rose, enamelled gules, barbed vert, having in the centre Her Majesty's Royal Effigy, within a purple circle, inscribed "VICTORIA IMPERATRIX," with the word "INDIA" on the leaves of the rose, surmounted by an Imperial Crown, all gold, pendent from an ornamented gold clasp by an Imperial purple riband, one inch and a half in width.

THE SOVEREIGN,

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN, EMPRESS OF INDIA.

GRAND MASTER,

RELATIVE PRECEDENCE OF KNIGHTS AND COMPANIONS OF THE VARIOUS ORDERS ARRANGED ALPHABETICALLY.

To ascertain the Relative Precedence of Knights and Companions among themselves, it will be only necessary to have regard to the number prefixed to each name—the lower number indicating the higher precedence. For example, Sir Richard England, numbered 1, takes precedence of Sir George Sartorius, numbered 31; and General Alexander, numbered 976, takes precedence of Morgan Foster, Esq., numbered 1283. The numbers are omitted from the names of those Knights who have a higher precedence than that conferred by their Knighthood. The names of Honorary Knights and Companions are not included in the following Lists.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force January, 1881.)

REGULATIONS ANNEXED TO THE VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY OF JUNE 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d’Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

PROTOCOL OF CONFERENCE OF THE FIVE POWERS. AIX-LA-CHAPELLE, NOVEMBER 21, 1818. (MINISTERS RESIDENT.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d’Affaires.

PRECEDENCE BETWEEN CONSULS AND NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS.

(In force, January 1881.)

The Consular Service consists of the following Classes:—

Agents and Consuls-General.

Consuls-General.

Consuls.

Vice-Consuls.

Consular-Agents.

Agents and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals and Major-Generals.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels, and Captains, R.N., of three years' standing, and before all other such Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Lieutenants and Navigating Lieutenants of eight years, and Majors.

Consular-Agents rank with, but after, Captains in the Army, and other Lieutenants and Navigating Lieutenants.

Consuls will take rank amongst their Colleagues at the Port of their Residence, in accordance with the Rules prescribed by the Congress of Vienna for Diplomatic Agents, viz.: seniority according to Official Title and priority of arrival

PRECEDENCE BETWEEN MEMBERS OF THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE AND NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS ATTACHED TO EMBASSIES AND MISSIONS ABROAD.

(In force, January 1881.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation may be.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Secretary of Embassy or of Legation.

NAVAL RANK AND COMMAND.

OFFICERS IN GENERAL.

The Officers of Her Majesty's Navy shall be divided into two branches, namely :—
a Military Branch and a Civil Branch.

The Military Branch, comprised of the undermentioned Officers, shall rank (and, with the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, command also) in the following order :—

- | | |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. Admirals of the Fleet. | 11. Navigating Lieutenants. |
| 2. Admirals. | 12. Sub-Lieutenants. |
| 3. Vice-Admirals. | 13. Navigating Sub-Lieutenants. |
| 4. Rear-Admirals. | 14. Chief Gunners. |
| 5. Commodores. | 15. Chief Boatswains. |
| 6. Captains. | 16. Gunners. |
| 7. Staff-Captains. | 17. Boatswains. |
| 8. Commanders. | 18. Midshipmen. |
| 9. Staff-Commanders. | 19. Naval Cadets. |
| 10. Lieutenants. | |

Commodores, when in the presence of Captains senior to them, shall rank and command according to their seniority as Captains.

When Commanders, Lieutenants, or Sub-Lieutenants, who are Seniors to the Executive Officer, are appointed for Navigating duties, they will, in the absence of the Captain, succeed to the command of the Ship; but they are not to take upon themselves the routine duties of the Executive Officer except by order of the Captain, or in case of necessity.

Staff-Captains, Staff-Commanders, and Navigating Lieutenants, whatever their rank and seniority may be, are in all matters of command, and in all details relating to the duties of the Fleet, and to the discipline and interior economy of Her Majesty's ships, to be held subject to the authority of any Officer, not below the rank of Lieutenant, who may be in charge of the executive duties of the ship, or in charge of any other special service or duty, of whatever seniority such Officer may be.

Officers in command of Her Majesty's ships must, on occasions, whether on shore or afloat, take rank and precedence of Officers placed under their command.

A ship must always be represented by an Officer of the Military Branch in the following order of command :—

- | | |
|---------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. Captain. | 8. Navigating Sub-Lieutenant. |
| 2. Commander. | 9. Chief Gunner. |
| 3. Lieutenant. | 10. Chief Boatswain. |
| 4. Staff-Captain. | 11. Gunner. |
| 5. Staff-Commander. | 12. Boatswain. |
| 6. Navigating Lieutenant. | 13. Midshipman. |
| 7. Sub-Lieutenant. | 14. Naval Cadet. |

At Courts of Inquiry, Surveys, and other similar assemblages of Officers, the Officer who in virtue of his office would, under these Regulations, take the military command, is in all cases to preside, irrespective of the relative rank of the other members.

Officers who qualify for navigating duties will be required to perform those duties, if called on to do so, until promoted to the rank of Captain.

They will be required to take a share in the ordinary duties of their ships, such as watch-keeping, acting as Divisional Officers, as in the case of Gunnery Lieutenants. But this participation in the ordinary duties is not to interfere with their special navigating duties, and is to be arranged at the discretion of the Captain.

All Officers of the same denomination in the Military Branch shall rank and command according to the order in which their names stand in the Official List of Officers of the Royal Navy; or, when not inserted in the List, according to the dates of their first Commissions, Warrants, or Orders, in their existing rank; and, if acting only, according to the seniority of their respective acting appointments; but Commanders and Lieutenants serving in a ship bearing the Flag of a Senior Flag Officer present, or the Broad Pendant of a Commodore of the First Class, being the Senior Officer present, or in the ship of the Senior Officer of five or more ships present, shall, when in the presence of, or acting under the immediate order from, such Senior Flag Officer or Commodore, or Senior Officer of five or more ships present, and detached on service in company with other Commanders, and Lieutenants of the Fleet or Squadron present, take rank and command respectively of all other Commanders and Lieutenants. Under all other circumstances, Commanders and Lieutenants of Flag Ships, as well as those of other ships, will take rank only according to their proper seniority.

The Civil Branch shall consist of the undermentioned Officers, and they shall rank in the following order, and with Officers of the Military Branch, as herein expressed :—

1. INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF HOSPITALS AND FLEETS	Ranks with REAR-ADMIRAL, according to the date of Commission.
2. SECRETARY TO AN ADMIRAL OF THE FLEET	Ranks with CAPTAIN of 3 years' seniority, according to the time served as Secretary to an Admiral of the Fleet.
3. PAYMASTER-IN-CHIEF	Rank with CAPTAIN of 3 years' seniority, according to date of Commission.
4. CHIEF INSPECTOR OF MACHINERY....
5. DEPUTY INSPECTOR - GENERAL OF HOSPITALS AND FLEETS

Chaplains shall not hold any Naval rank, but shall retain, when afloat, the position to which their office would entitle them on shore ; and the Chaplain of Greenwich Hospital shall be considered the head of the Chaplains, with the title of Chaplain of the Fleet.

RELATIVE RANK OF THE OFFICERS OF THE NAVY AND ARMY.

The relative rank of Officers of the Navy with each other and with Officers of the Army shall be as laid down in the following List, and shall in every case take effect according to the dates of their respective commissions, or appointments, except when the relative rank is dependent on the attainment of seniority or completion of service, in which case it shall take effect from such attainment of seniority or completion of service in the particular rank.

Nothing contained in these regulations is to give a claim to any Officer of the Navy to assume command of Her Majesty's Land Forces on shore, nor to any Officer of the Army to assume command of any of Her Majesty's squadrons or Ships, or of any of the Officers or Men thereunto belonging, unless under special authority from the Government in England for any particular Service. But when Officers of the Navy are employed on shore, on joint service with Her Majesty's Land Forces, their relative rank shall carry with it all precedence and advantages attaching to the rank with which it corresponds (except command as aforesaid), and shall regulate the choice of quarters, rates of lodging money, servants, forage, fuel, and light, or allowances in their stead.

The precedence of the Naval Commander-in-Chief in India is next below the Commander-in-Chief in India, if not a Member of Council, and irrespective of their relative Military rank.

At Durbars, Processions, and other Public Ceremonies in India, a distinctive place will be assigned to the Senior Naval Officer on the spot in the absence of the Commander-in-Chief, without reference to his relative military rank.

Under the regulations formerly in force, the precedence of the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Forces in any Colony, was dependent on the question whether or not he was entitled to administer the Government of the Colony in the absence of the Governor. But the alteration of circumstances has rendered this arrangement in some cases inconvenient or anomalous, therefore it is Her Majesty's pleasure that the following rules be now observed in the Colonies in regard to the precedence of Military and Naval Officers in command of Her Majesty's Forces:—

- a.* The Senior Officer in command of the troops, if of the rank of a General, and the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of the rank of an Admiral, are to have precedence next after the Governor, their own relative rank being determined by the Queen's Regulations on that subject.
- b.* The Senior Officer in command of the troops, if of the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, and the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of equivalent rank, are to have precedence next after the Bishop and the Chief Justice, their own relative rank being determined by the Queen's Regulations on that subject.
- c.* If below the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, the Senior Officer in command of the Troops, and the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, are to continue to take rank, as has heretofore been the case, next after the Solicitor-General.

15. MIDSHIPMEN, and Clerks	” Second Lieutenants

* The relative precedence is not affected by a General Officer happening to be the Lieutenant Governor of a fortress at home.

PRECEDENCE IN THE COLONIES.

The precedence of Colonial Officers is in some cases determined by Colonial enactments, by Royal Charters, by Instructions communicated either under the Royal Signet and Sign Manual through the Secretary of State, or by authoritative usage. In the absence of any such special authority, Governors are to guide themselves by the subjoined table.

Table of precedence of Colonial Officers.

The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Officer administering the Government.
The Senior Officer in command of the Troops, if of the rank of a General, and the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of the rank of an Admiral, their own relative rank being determined by the Queen's Regulations on that subject.
The Bishop.
The Chief Justice.
The Senior Officer in command of the Troops, if of the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, and the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of equivalent rank, their own relative rank being determined by the Queen's Regulations on that subject.

MR Bernard Burke's
Peerage,
Baronetage,
Knightage, &c.

THIS Peerage and Baronetage is the only one extant which combines, in one volume, the full genealogical or past, as well as the present, account of all the Peers and Baronets of the realm. The Baronetage incorporated with the Peerage, is complete in every detail as to the Lineage and present condition of each Baronet and his family. The Knightage has been much enlarged by the introduction of the family connections of the Knights of the several Orders, of the Knights Bachelors, and of the Members of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council. 1,650 pages, containing 1,500 families, comprises about 150,000 dates, and includes the names of more than 200,000 persons. To which are added the names of the recipients of the Victoria Cross. 1 vol., super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £1 18s.

"A Drawing Room is inadequately furnished without it, and the Student's library incomplete unless the book is on the shelf. To Official and Legal men, and indeed to the public at large, the information it contains is indispensable. It is more suitable and more acceptable as a present than any annual publication we know."—Illustrated News.

"Every care has been taken to make this edition of the Englishman's Bible perfect as a book of reference."—World.

Landed Gentry

Of Great Britain and Ireland.

BEING a record of the Lineage, &c., of about 4,500 Families, with a description of their Arms, Crests, &c. This edition of the Landed Gentry has been compiled from communications made by the chiefs and heads of families from their private papers, traditions, and genealogies. The great aim has been to arrive at accuracy, and in order to attain this end, every available source of information has been exhausted, and a correspondence carried on which has secured many thousands of communications from those most competent to improve and correct the work. Apocryphal statements, which had crept into former editions, have been expunged, erroneous particulars and incorrect descents discovered and omitted, and some memoirs excluded as being no longer associated with the possession of landed property. Sixth edition, corrected throughout, in two volumes, uniform with "The Peerage," "General Armory." 1,800 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £3 3s.

"A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution."—Post.

* * A few copies of the Fifth Edition of this important work can still be had. Published in 1871, reprinted in 1875, with Supplement containing nearly 200 Additional Families, and an Addenda, with numerous corrections, together with an Index to Families in Supplement and Addenda. 2 vols., royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £3 3s.
